MAILCOM '17

37th Annual Conference & Exhibition

April 10-12, 2017

Philadelphia

Pennsylvania Convention Center
MAILCOM ‘17 moves to the Convention Center in the former Reading Train Terminal.

Improving your mail, document and distribution operation is a continuing process. Saving money and maintaining top performance doesn’t happen by chance.

It takes objective information.

And that is what MAILCOM is all about.

Showing you how to do more with less.

And how to do it better.

Come and join the leading operations managers and top vendors at MAILCOM ‘17, the 37th Annual Convention, April 10-12 in Philadelphia at the Pennsylvania Convention Center.

With nearly 90 expert-led sessions, keynotes, and exhibits – plus many networking opportunities – you’ll find the knowledge to act to improve your operations.

Knowledge to use the minute you are back in the office – to save money and improve services.

Who should attend MAILCOM ‘17?
The person responsible for mail/document/distribution services in corporations, institutions, or government agencies.

What will you learn?
The latest regulations, strategies and technologies for delivering professional mail, document, and distribution services.

About MAILCOM
Now in its 37th year, MAILCOM is the largest educational organization for mail and distribution management in the world. MAILCOM is sponsored by the Mail Systems Management Association and MAIL: The Journal of Communication Distribution. For more information visit www.mailcom.org.

"I love being in downtown Philadelphia … it’s a great location and excellent place for a convention. I never leave MAILCOM without increasing my knowledge and network of professionals."

SESSION MS105

Reengineering Mail Services to Eliminate Waste, Reduce Costs and Improve Efficiency and Service

Whether you are considering consolidation, merging, centralizing, rightsizing, or reengineering your goal is the same, eliminate waste, reduce costs and improve efficiency and service. This presentation will guide you through the daunting steps to successfully employ the resources and methods needed to achieve your goals. Without proper planning and management, changes to your organization can get messy and stall resulting in the possible loss of critical personnel and added costs at a time when failure is not an option. We will show you what to expect, how to avoid the pitfalls and move forward to a successful conclusion.

Instructor: Jim Barlow, Jr, CMDSM, EMCM, MDP, MDC, Mail Systems Management Consultants

Monday, April 10, 2017, Round One, 2:00-3:00pm

SESSION MS201

How to Write Effective Operating Procedures for Mail Services

Documenting the appropriate steps needed to complete a particular activity or job effectively is an integral part of a successful quality operation. If you have outdated, generic or no written Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs), this presentation will show you how to write SOPs that are concise and effective for your specific operation so that each step of every task is followed in a proven and effective manner every time. Effective SOPs will result in fewer errors and waste, increased productivity, reduced risk of injury and loss, and meeting service requirements. In addition, training new employees will be less disruptive and more efficient.

Wednesday, April 12, 2017, Round Eight, 9:45-10:45am

SESSION MS207

Creating a Mail/Delivery Services Operations Guide

One of the most difficult challenge any operation faces is communicating to the company what services are provided and a service standard for each. Developing and publishing a Standard Operating Procedures manual for mail and delivery services is critical to its success and to ensure that every employee has a document of services rendered. It also benefits in the training process of new employees to learn how things are done and how to operate all the equipment located in the operation center. If you ever considered or are looking at creating an operations guide then this session is for you.

Instructor: Joe Freeman, CMDSM, MDC, MDP, Canon Business Process Services, Inc

Tuesday, April 11, 2017, Round Six, 3:30-4:30pm

SESSION MS301

Reinventing Site Logistics for Effective Change Management for the “Agile” Workplace

Technology, Culture and Global Competitiveness of today’s business world dramatically affect the daily operations and success of your distribution responsibilities. This session shows how globally competitive organizations are reinventing their logistics and distribution infrastructure to deliver unprecedented efficiency and satisfaction to their agile, mobile workforces today. Instructors: Susan Manning, CEO, Docuxcel-Corrigan & Manning and Arne Chardukian, IOPC MultiSort Mail and Parcels Solutions

Monday, April 10, 2017, Round Three, 4:30-5:30pm

SESSION MS305

How to Optimize Your Mail Center Spend

Did you know that mail could account for more than 9% of a Fortune 500’s operating cost? In this session you will learn how to efficiently and effectively manage your mailroom workflows to ensure you stay within your budget. Topics to be covered include: production schedules/efficiencies, quality control, mailpiece basics, working with your service provider, data processing issues and how to put it all together.

Instructors: Christine Erna and Mark Rheaume, Novitex Enterprise Solutions

Tuesday, April 11, 2017, Round Five, 2:15-3:15pm

SESSION MS309

Sharpen Your Mail Expertise

In an industry that’s continuously evolving and improving it’s a daunting challenge to stay up to date on best practices. This session will cover the foundation of mailing, which includes classes of mail, processing categories, address requirements and more. Whether you are an expert or a novice, this program will empower you to build on your postal knowledge.

Instructors: Roger Brown and Mark Rheaume, Novitex Enterprise Solutions.

Tuesday, April 11, 2017, Round Seven, 4:45-5:45pm
Mail Communications Manager: The Corporate Consultant
The mail center is the heart of any organization. Almost all communication flows through it. As a mail center manager you can and should position yourself as an internal corporate consultant for “all things mail.” This session will cover how to read the tea leaves and anticipate change, become a resource for responding to new initiatives and add value to your organization. Instructor: Jud Thurman, CMDSM, CMDSS, Gospel Minutes Publications.

Wednesday, April 12, 2017, Round Ten 2:00-2:50pm

The Secret to a Stress-Free RFP
Learn techniques to conduct an effective and productive Request for Proposal process from the bidder and contractor perspective. Come and hear the war stories of a seasoned proposal writer and manager, gaining valuable insight into some tips and techniques to promote a positive contractor-client relationship from contract inception. This session will provide you with the insight into the RFP life cycle and how the conduct of an organized and well-planned procurement initiative to reduce your stress level and obtain the information you need! Instructor: Sally Pfabe, CMDSS, MDC, EMCM, BrightKey, Inc.

Wednesday, April 12, 2017, Round Nine, 1:00-1:50pm

Rapid and Reliable Identification of Mailroom White Powder Hazards – CONOPS to Employee Capability
White powder scares can paralyze a mailroom if not handled properly. This leads to significant down time resulting in delayed deliveries and associated business productivity costs. White powder response protocols are based on the worst possibility, (anthrax or ricin), not the most likely possibility, (hoax or incidental spill) as they should be for public and employee safety. Rapid substance identification can dramatically decrease mailroom downtime but only when employees thoroughly understand the CONOPS, have the appropriate detection and identification equipment at hand, and can effectively interpret the results. Collectively this increases employee safety and dramatically reduces collateral business damage. This presentation will cover effective CONOPS, available detection and identification technology, and most importantly, appropriate implementation and use of both. Instructor: Chris Weber, Smiths Detection

Wednesday, April 12, 2017, Round Nine, 1:00-1:50pm

How to Protect Employees and Customers from Mail Threats
This session covers facility safety measures to insure safe working environment. What you should know and do to make the mail safe for your customers and employees. Instructor: Don Thordsen, State of Colorado

Tuesday, April 11, 2017, Round Five, 2:15-3:15pm

Using Canines to Protect Your Operations
A well-trained bomb dog is extremely difficult to fool or defeat. Explosive Detection Canine Teams provide the most effective, efficient and versatile explosive detection capability available. The high visibility of the Canine Teams also acts as an outstanding deterrent. No machine or manual search technique can even remotely compare with a canine team. Instructor: Buddy Eanes, Explosive Countermeasures International Inc.

Monday, April 10, 2017, Round One, 2:00-3:00pm

Using mmWave Technology for Mail Security
This presentation provides an understanding of the fundamentals of millimeter wave technology, a review of all the MailSecur device functions, modes of operation, and limitations, a practical review of video data and decoding technique, a complete A-TO-Z index on device operation. Also Included are training simulations using inert objects representing mail threats based on a variety of scenarios. Instructor: Eric Giroux, RaySecur Inc.

Tuesday, April 11, 2017, Round Seven, 4:45-5:45pm

SESSION SS403
The Real Value of Mail Screening
The incorporation of mail screening initiatives and procedures into Mail Center operations is no longer optional. Federal entities are required to have all inbound mail and parcels inspected and reviewed for mail-borne threats. CBRNE threats and while powder hoaxes have become more and more prevalent and easy to introduce into facilities through the mail stream, creating a new sub-sector of mailroom management à mail screening services. Come learn techniques, basic and advanced to protect your personnel, facility, and ensure compliance. Instructor: Sally Pfabe, CMDSS, MDC, EMCM, BrightKey, Inc.

Monday, April 10, 2017, Round Two, 3:15-4:15pm

SESSION SS407
Innovations in Personnel Safety in the Mailroom
Safety in the mailroom has never been more critical to worker health and continued operations. During a time of tightening of budgets, the continued threat of mail-borne attacks, and a trend towards a paperless society, mailroom personnel are being asked to handle more with less, in the areas of both manpower and resources. Explore techniques to ensure the safety of lone workers, streamline work flow to handle “more with less”, and reduce mailroom injuries through this interactive session. Instructor: Sally Pfabe, CMDSS, MDC, EMCM, BrightKey, Inc.

Wednesday, April 12, 2017, Round Eight, 9:45-10:45am

SESSION SS409
Mail Center Security Forum: Identifying Essential Training for Mailroom and Administrative Personnel
As international and domestic terrorism events increase around the world, security directors and mail center managers face the constant challenge of providing personnel with up-to-date training with minimal disruption. This facilitated open forum addresses the most current security topics, the application of Federal regulations, and the role training plays in helping your organization mitigate risk. We will discuss a variety of training methods and how each can be used to enhance threat understanding and awareness. Instructor: Keith Marshall, The JGW Group

Tuesday, April 11, 2017, Round Four, 11:15-12:15pm

SESSION AD201
MailPiece Design: Tips to Ensure Your MailPieces Meet Design Requirements
This session will address high level MailPiece Design requirements and how to ensure you meet the requirements before going to production. Set up a process for your company or business partners to submit designs through an internal program. Instructor: Marsha Amato-Greenspan, CMDSS, Bank of America.

Monday, April 10, 2017, Round Two, 3:15-4:15pm

SESSION AD205
What’s Your Address-ability?
The Address is More than Just a Physical Location. There is a wealth of data in the simple address. It can help support fraud detection, it can give you insight into activity down to the zip code, it can help with social media. You just need to know where to look, how to gather the right information and understand how regulations and data management can help. GrayHair’s Adam Collinson, VP Data and Analytics discuss ways to make sure you strategies and processes match.

Monday, April 10, 2017, Round Three, 4:30-5:30pm

NCOALink — Finding The Right Vendor At The Right Price
Mailers need to have their addresses run through the National Change of Address database and that usually means using an outside vendor that is an NCOALink licensee. Too often, the selection process of the vendor is a quick decision without comparing costs. And issues like data security and customer data protection are not considered, especially with processing done over the internet. This course details current USPS-approved licensees and outlines steps every mailer should take before utilizing the services.

Tuesday, April 11, 2017, Round Six, 3:30-4:30pm

SESSION AD301
Customer Data: Your Greatest Tool or Hindrance?
In today’s economy customer data should be KING. Yet, with approximately forty million Americans moving annually it can

SESSION MP205

Is There a Million Dollars on Your Shop Floor?

Postage is the most expensive component of any mailing budget. Consider this: a business sending 75 million mailpieces a year could save three-quarters of a million dollars annually by dropping postage one cent per piece. One of the biggest cost savings opportunities is bringing presort operations in house, rather than outsourcing to a presort bureau. This is easier to do than you might think with a well-planned automation process. There’s true value to an organization when printing hardware and postal presort software are integrated in the mail induction workflow. The combination of the automation capabilities of the software and hardware you are already investing in creates additional uplift beyond the savings each could possibly create independently. In this session, you will gain an understanding of the true value of integration and automation. You will also take away: Actionable information that will help understand maximizing postage optimization, including benefits in savings, timing, and delivery, an evaluation toolkit that will help you calculate potential postage savings when taking processing in house versus outsourcing. These savings can improve the bottom line or free up money for re-investment. Learn more in this joint presentation of industry leaders, Canon Solutions America and BCC Software.
